Barre people will be disappointed to learn that the annual game between the university of Vermont and Norwich university, set for Oct. 27, which has formerly been played at the Intensity grounds between Barre and Montpelier, will be played in Burlington this year.

There will be lots of fun at the Barre opera house to-night, for "Peck's Bad Boy" will be there, and that means fun fast and furious. The play has been rewritten and is funnier than ever. It is always safe to prophesy a sure thing, and we do not hesitate to prophesy a welcome, good and strong, for "Peck's Bad Boy."

About twenty young people made an unannounced call on Mr. and Mrs. J. Gould More of Tremont street last evening to help celebrate the fifth wedding anniversary of the host and hostess. They brought a curious collection of wooden articles which they presented, in keeping with the anniversary. After the surprise had subsided, the company had a pleasant time until late in the evening, and a chafing-dish luncheon was served.
